Sculpture is the branch of the visual arts that operates in three dimensions. It is one of the plastic arts. Durable sculptural processes originally used carving (the removal of material) and modelling (the addition of material, as clay), in stone, metal, ceramics, wood and other materials but, since Modernism, there has been an almost complete freedom of materials and process. As an artist she has displayed her jewelry and art work in many art galleries and galas in the Delaware Valley, including The National Liberty Museum, The Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Port Manteaux churns out silly new words when you feed it an idea or two. Enter a word (or two) above and you'll get back a bunch of portmanteaux created by jamming together words that are conceptually related to your inputs. Her kiln formed glass technique varies

~~depending on whether the artist is fusing two or more layers of glass or slumping~~ (heating glass at lower a temperature to achieve a desire shape.) The slumping process often involves the use of a mold to form the glass.
